And to ſeveral Private Bills.

After which Her Majeſty made the following moſt Gracious Speech to both Houſes.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Progreſs which has been made in Publick Buſineſs, and the Seaſon of the Year, render it both Convenient and Neceſſary, that I ſhould put an End to this Seſſion.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I Return you hearty Thanks for all your good Services to Me and to your Country, and particularly for the Supplies you have given Me, as well to Defray the Expences of the Current Year, as towards the Diſcharge of the National Debts.

In our preſent Circumſtances, it could not be expected, that a full Proviſion ſhould be made on both theſe Heads.

What you have granted, ſhall be laid out with the beſt Husbandry, and to the greateſt Advantage.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I hope early in the Winter to Meet you again, and to find you in ſuch a Temper, as is Neceſſary, for the real Improvement of Our Commerce, and of all the other Advantages of Peace.

My Chief Concern is to Preſerve to you, and to your Poſterity, Our Holy Religion, and the Liberty of My Subjects, and to Secure the preſent and future Tranquillity of My Kingdoms. But, I muſt tell you plainly, That theſe deſireable Ends can never be Attain'd, unleſs you bring the ſame Diſpoſitions on your Parts; unleſs all groundleſs Jealouſies, which create and foment Diviſions among you, be laid Aſide; and unleſs you ſhew, the ſame Regard, for My Juſt Prerogative, and for the Honour of My Government, as I have always expreſſed for the Rights of My People.

And then the Parliament was Prorogued to Tueſday the Tenth Day of Auguſt next.

Hamburgh, July 13. N. S. On the 7th Inſtant the King of Denmark arrived at Pinneburg, three German Miles from hence, and the next Day our Magiſtrates ſent Deputies to Compliment him in their Name

Name, and to make him a Preſent on the Part of this City. Monſieur Pouiſſon, Miniſter of France, has likewiſe been to wait upon his Majeſty, who continued three Days at that Place, and ſet out on the 10th for Bremen. The Dutch Reſident here, hath ſent his Secretary to Monſieur Ducker at Stralſund, in purſuance of the Orders he received from the States General, his Maſters, to demand the Veſſels which have been taken from their Subjects by the Swediſh Privateers. The King of Denmark hath given Directions to have thirteen large Men of War fitted out at Copenhagen with all poſſible Expedition. This Squadron is to join the ſeven Daniſh Ships that are now at Bornholm, in order to Attack the Swediſh Fleet, and to force them from their advantagious Poſt at Hungo Udda, which will very much promote the Czar's Deſign on the other ſide of the Kingdom. Upon the laſt Memorial preſented by the Miniſters of Sweden to the Diet of Auſbourg, the Electoral College hath reſolved to deſire the Emperor, that all Affairs relating to the Swediſh Provinces in Germany, may be treated of at the Congreſs of Brunſwick. The College of Princes of the Empire hath only agreed to intreat his Imperial Majeſty to take them into his own Conſideration.

Hanover, July 13. N. S. On the 11th the Court returned from Pirmond to Herenhauſen, where his Electoral Highneſs intends to continue during the reſt of the Summer. Monſieur Verpope is ſent into Holſtein, with a Compliment from the Elector to his Daniſh Majeſty. The Sieurs Roſenkrantz and Viberg, Plenipotentiaries of Denmark at the Congreſs of Brunſwick, are likewiſe gone from hence, in order to meet the King their Maſter in Holſtein. Monſieur Buſch, Chamberlain of this Court, is appointed to notify the Death of the Electreſs Dowager to the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, who is lately returned into his own Dominions from Holland. They write from Swerin, That the Duke of Mecklenbourg had ordered a Computation to be made of the Damage which had been done to his Country by the Troops of the Princes engaged in the War of the North. It appeared that his own and his Subjects Loſſes amounted to One Million and ſix hundred thouſand Florins; for which the Duke intends to demand a Recompence at the Congreſs of Brunſwick. We have receiv'd advice, that the Swediſh and Muſcovite Fleets were ſo near one another on the Coaſts of Revel, that it was thought they could hardly avoid coming to an Engagement.

Paris, July 14. N. S. Some Perſons of the Earl of Peterborough's Retinue are already come to this Place, and his Excellency is expected here himſelf in a ſhort time from Italy. We are informed, that the Queen Dowager of Poland is arrived at Marſeilles, from whence ſhe intends to ſet out ſoon for Blois, where the King has ordered a Palace to be prepared for her Reception. Letters from Spain bring an account, that the Inhabitants of Barcelona appeared very much dejected upon the News of Mareſchal Berwick's approach with the French Troops. All matters were preparing to Attack the Place in Form, immediately after his arrival. The Deſerters reported, that there were not above Three thouſand Men of regular Troops, remaining in the Town, and that a great part of them only waited for an opportunity to withdraw from thence. Monſieur Orry had left the Army, and was upon his way to Madrid, when he received an Expreſs from Court with Orders to return to the Camp.

Hague, July 17. N. S. The Earl of Clarendon, Her Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Elector of Brunſwick, arrived here on the 15th, and intends in a Day or two to purſue his Journey to Hanover. Monſieur Van den Bergh, Deputy of the States General at Bruſſels, is come hither from thence. The Emperor has appointed Count Koningſeck to be his Plenipotentiary to Treat upon the Subject of the Barrier with the States General. Letters from Baden bring an account, That the Conferences between the Miniſters of his Imperial Majeſty, and thoſe of France, were carried on with ſo much Succeſs, that it was believed the Treaty would be concluded before the end of this Month.
